A Jolly Time, and Large Receipts for the Orphans-Matches to Come Off by the "Fat Men," the "Fatty Brends" and the " Hame-Strings."

The great event of the season transpired at the Olympic park yesterday afternoon. It was the much-talked of ong-looked for and greatly "blowed" bout match at base-ball, between the Freight Agents and Cotton-Buyers of another negro named Solomon Harris the city for the benefit of the several orphin saylume. For weeks past nothing but "bat and ball talk" could be eard around the cotton exchange. "Futures" were neglected, and little of the white staple was bought or sold. THE GAME OF VESTERDAY trains on the Memphis and Louisville railroad, which left early in the afternoon, were crawded with enthusiastic citizene, embracing all classes, while there was a very large attendance of the fair sex to grace the proceedings with their presence. When the game was called, shortly after three o'clock, the field paesented

The cooler air" and witness and erjoy fun proceeds of the entertainment will be which one and all fondly anticipated, and their rapturous cheere, roars of laughter and shouts of applause, when the Sisters of the Good Shepherd. One anything extraordinary took place, showed they were enjoying themselves to the top of their bent. The white stockings, white flannel knee-field, on this occasion, presented breeches, shirt sleeves and broad brim several unique features seldom witnessed at base-ball matches. At right and left field, boards, coffin-shaped, with skull and cross-bones painted on them, were used as boundaries. Between the "home plate" and the first base

THE HOSPITAL TENT was pitched. Here was to be found Proffessor Jake Wood, the noted dispenser of physic, with Dr. "Jep" Fowlkes acting as first-assistant. Henry Luhrman was hospital steward, with a most abundant supply of that celebrated iced beverage which he has for years supplied to the 'thirsty souls' of Memphis under the name of lager beer. Mr. Luhrman had several assistants, white and black, and the way they dispensed the palatable physic to all who had the entree gratis was pleasant to behold. Bronson Bayliss, E-q., the smiable who has made surveys and estimates of the reception committee, the cost, etc., of the Pine Bluff and Lo-after seeing, with his numerous aids, that every one had good places for seeing all that was going on, took his seat under the shady canvas of the hospital tent to be ready for any emergency. He examined Prof. Wood's multilarious case of instruments, while Dr. Hoerner, Mr. H. T. Tomlinson, Mr. H. B Williams, and others, tasted slightly of the lager, and retired to a shady spot to enjoy a quiet cigar, surrounded by several of his associates. Meanwhile FAT MEN'S CLUB. The fat meu of Memphis having resolved to have a public base-ball match for the benefit of our orphan asylums, urgently call upon their fellow-citizens for support in a movement so laudable. Believing that they show their faith by their works in the self-sacrifice necessary for men of their weight to engage in active field sport with the thermometer at eighty degrees, they think they are justified in asking the united and active assistance of all who have the interest of our eleemosynary institutions at heart. journ their courts at twelve o'clock on Thursday, the twenty-third instant, and on the merchants to close their stores at noon, in order to enable all who desire to attend on an occasion which combines amusement with charity in so pleasing a manner. Arrangements are now in progress which, when complete, promises to make this base-ball match the most interesting and exciting that Memphis has ever witnessed. It is undertaken in good faith and we urgently ask the co-operation of all to make it's success. By order of the committee. R. W. MITCHELL, Secretary.
